RANKINGS HISTORY

Personal Career Highlights Year In Review

Father Wilhelm; mother Elfriede, brother Mario...Started playing tennis aged seven...Reached a career-high No. 9 on ITF junior circuit in 2005...Idols growing up were Rafael Nadal and Hermann Maier (alpine skier)...Was a practice partner for the Austrian Davis Cup team in its World Group play-off tie in Chile in September 2009...Coached by Karel van Wyk and fitness trainer is Kohl Christian.

2010 -- Qualified at Gstaad (l. to Montanes in 2nd RD)...Qualified for US Open on his first trip to United States...Made his breakthrough in Vienna...As a lucky loser he defeated former World No. 1 Thomas Muster in the first round and World No. 14 Marin Cilic in the quarter-finals en route to reaching his maiden ATP World Tour final...Finished runner-up to World No. 12 and fellow Austrian Jurgen Melzer 76(10) 67(4) 46 after serving for the match at 5-4 in the second set... Afterwards rose 42 places to career-high World No. 115 in the South African Airways 2010 ATP Rankings... "I'm happy with the first final, but I was up 7-6, 5-3, I served for the match. I had big chances to win this title, but it's the first time. I was a little bit nervous. Jurgen played good in this moment, and I lost. For sure I had a dream come true because now I'm near Top 100, and this is my next goal. I can learn a lot for the future and I'm happy."
